- AGENCY : RWANDA TRANSPORT DEVELOPMENT AGENCY (RTDA)
- FUNDING : NORDIC DEVELOPMENT FUND (NDF)
- SUBJECT : CALL FOR STUDENT INTERNSHIPS AND EXCELLENCE AWARDS PROGRAMME

RTDA, through the implementation of "Developing Capacity for Climate Resilient Road Transport Infrastructure (DCCRR)" project, has a pleasure to call interested students to participate in the project implementation through the internship programme. This internship programme is open to the students of different academic levels: undergraduate and postgraduate in civil engineering, environmental & GIS students and TVET students. Female students are encouraged to apply.

The objectives of this internship programme include:

1. To acquaint technicians, undergraduate and postgraduate students to the work of the Agency;
2. To provide interns with practical skills in line with their academic studies;
3. To promote a better understanding of RTDA operations;
4. To mainstream climate change into future workforce for RTDA and private sector active in road transport infrastructure;
5. To provide RTDA with potential future recruits of engineers, environmentalist and technicians who have the required knowledge and skills of designing and constructing Climate Resilient Road Transport Infrastructures.

How to apply:

A student who wishes to join the programme shall write a concept note or proposal, not exceeding 3 pages, on what he/she understands by "To Build Climate Resilient Road Transport Infrastructure" and how this target can be materialised considering one of the three solution areas listed below:

1. Engineering climate resilient solutions in road transport sector;
2. Environmental climate resilient solutions in road transport sector;
3. GIS tools or GIS approach related to climate resilient solutions in road transport sector.

P

The concept note or proposal with full contact details of the applicant including his/her registration number and the name of university or school shall be sent to the email: info@rtda.gov.rw with a copy to solange.mizero@rtda.gov.rw, and kari.suominen@finnoc.fi; not later than 18th December 2020.

The applicants of shortlisted concept notes or proposals will be called for interview after which the successful applicants will get immediate placement.
